

A light-hearted look at the history of knickers with Carole Ransom

Saturday 8th April 2017

11.30 - 12.30pm

coffee from 11.15

£6.00 Friends of Chertsey Museum
(£7.50 non Friends)

As a child Carole had a gift for sewing, a skill that came in handy when making her own dance costumes. Little did she realise that the skill of making her own knickers would led her to develop her own collection of historic garments which she will use to illustrate the changing styles and fashions of ladies undergarments!

From drawers to pantaloons, briefs to knickers, this light-hearted lecture is anything but pants!
